

Activity #3 Drawing Your Own Cartoons

Try your hand at creating cartoons from the following excerpt.

Fire and Smoke!

Saturday afternoon a cauldron of tar which J.C. Hoover was heating for a coating for fence wire took fire and immediately great clouds of fire and smoke were sent up, causing much excitement among the people of West Branch. Everybody with buckets in hand, rushed pell mell for the scene of the conflagration. . . . [Excerpt taken from page 7 of The Life of Herbert Hoover: The Engineer, 1874-1914 written by George H. Nash.]

