

Student Workshop: Getting Started on Research

November 22, 2013

Cost: FREE

9:30am-1:30pm

Schedule:

9:30-10:00- Registration

10:00-10:25- Overview of National History Day

10:00-1:00- Four Station Rotation

1:00-1:30- Lunch in the auditorium and Q&A with the experts

Stations

- 1. Boxes and Books- Learn the differences between primary and secondary sources, demonstrate how to find them, and how to keep a paper trail.
- 2. Process Paper Basics- Learn what information to track and record to write an effective process paper.
- 3. Computer Connections: This session will explore ways to make searching for historical materials on the internet more productive.
- 4. Topics Corner- This session will help students focus their research topics and describe the Hoover Presidential Library's Collections pertaining to the 2014 National History Day Theme.

Presented by the Archival and Education Staff at the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library and Museum call (319) 643-6031 or e mail HooverTours@nara.gov to register your class or student!

Scan for more NHD information!